COMMONWEALTH

V.

KENNETH WATERS

NOLLE PROSEQUI

Now comes the Commonwealth in the above entitled matter and files this nolle prosequi.

Based upon new DNA evidence of the presence of blood of an unknown person at the scene of the 1980 murder of Katherina Brow, the Commonwealth has agreed that, at a minimum, a new trial of the above indictments is warranted.

At this time, there is insufficient evidence to proceed with a criminal prosecution against the defendant, Kenneth Waters, and as such, the Commonwealth has determined that, at this time, a nolle prosequi is in the interests of justice. The Commonwealth's investigation into the murder of Katherina Brow has and will continue.
